

Chairman's letter

I would like to thank Council members for all their hard work on getting the next NNAC exhibition arranged.

There has been a huge amount of work carried out to get the forms devised, rules for our black and white section and the general work of liaising with venues, and others concerned in getting everything to work seamlessly.

Entry forms and information is now available from Geoff Kitchen:

geoffandvirginia@tiscali.co.uk

Thanks to all my colleagues.

I am sorry to say that due to a series of problems, we have had to cancel our next demonstration with Bryony Knight on 30th July. I am so sorry but despite all efforts we could not get the problems sorted. However, the good news is that Bryony will demonstrate in April 2023.

A ONCE IN A LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY

Sponsor a page in our catalogue for the Handa Gallery exhibition.

We have seven pages that can be sponsored by members at £25 each page.

You can supply an image in jpeg and 1mb, and an opportunity to promote yourself in 150 words.

A chance to be written into the history of NNAC.

Hurry to get in contact as it is first come first served.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR TRANSPORTING ARTWORKS TO HANDA GALLERY

To assist members who have artwork selected for the Handa Gallery exhibition in September, we have arranged a specialist courier to take artwork to and from Wells next-the-Sea.

Artwork can be delivered to me at 7 Wild Road, Norwich

On Tuesday 7th September 2022, and collected on Tuesday 4th October 2022.

Once selection has taken place, artists will be contacted and arrangements confirmed.
