

Chairman's letter

This will be the last letter I shall write as chairman of NNAC, as my term of office comes to an end at the AGM.

I shall still be around as I will serve another year supporting the next elected chair.

I would like to say how much I have enjoyed the role you kindly elected me. Although we went straight into lockdown, and emerged the other-side, Council managed to support members in as many ways as we could.

The use of technology, although without its problems, did mean we could continue and keep the ideas flowing.

Over these three years I have been in contact with many of you, and it has given me so much pleasure and joy. We are so lucky to have such a rich membership, and long may it continue.

Please do give the new chair and Council all your support.

EXHIBITION OF INTEREST

New Norfolk Art Group 'Eight by Eight' Launches Exhibition in Holt
'EIGHT by EIGHT'

Eight high profile Norfolk artists are staging a group exhibition this Easter in Holt. The exhibition goes under the title 'Eight by Eight' featuring eight paintings each from eight artists.

The participating artists are David 'Mouse' Cooper, Rachel Thomas and six members of the Institute of East Anglian Artists: Nicholas Elliott
IEA, Rosemary Carruthers IEA, Les Williams IEA, Pauline Sexton IEA,
Chris Giles IEAP, and Bob Brandt FIEA.

All the artists have very different styles of painting, but have one thing in common: huge talent, and an ability to convey emotion with paint.

The show will feature equine paintings, floral, landscapes, cityscapes marine and abstract work – which makes for a fascinating mix of superb artwork.

The exhibition is open 7th-16th
April, 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. at the Anwen and John Hurt Exhibition
Space,
The Community Centre, Holt, N25
6DN
