

Chairman's letter

Welcome to you all, and it has been really good to see many of our members again, now we are freer to meet.

Exciting times for 2022 and the NNAC exhibition at the Forum, Norwich from 6th-13th May 2022, promises to be a bumper one too.

Our exhibition in September at The Handa Gallery, Wells-next-the-Sea will feature a section on Black and White. Some of you may not know that Sir Alfred Munnings RA did black and white art. Jenny Hand, Director of Munnings Museum has kindly opened up the museum exclusively for us to research his work and paint. We have arranged a coach to take us down for the day. Make a note of the date

Wednesday 15th June 2022. Details of the pick up points are being worked out. Please register your interest, with me.

Get to know your Council members

Hazel Pidsley

I thought I would include myself, as we have new members who I have not been able to meet. So you know who I am!

I joined NNAC and got involved as a Council member. I had the honour of being elected chairman two years ago.

I have had a varied life, living a lot of my childhood in Zambia and Kenya.

I owned and ran a hotel in Suffolk for 22 years and then I became the Chief Officer of a charity for 15 years, before retiring. I consider myself a 'learner' with art as I started classes and joined art groups when I retired. I love art and visit exhibitions all over the country.

Coach trip to Munnings Museum

Wednesday

15th June 2022

Please could you contact me to register your interest in the trip to the museum.

The House will be opened exclusively for us in the morning to study his black and white art and other works.

We are also free to paint in the gardens too.

The cost will be £20 for members and will include refreshments on arrival.
